

To: 7th grade Parents/Students interested in 2012
Washington DC Trip

Who: Any Ramona 7th grader who will be in 8th grade during the 2011-2012 school-year. This is an application only trip. Any student may apply. Acceptance will be based on behavior, grade point average, teacher/staff recommendation and evaluation of short answers on the application.

What: I haven't yet determined cities of travel. I am currently checking prices. They may include Boston/Washington DC-5 nights or Washington DC with trips out to Monticello/Gettysburg possibly 6 nights...this will all depend on student interest and price.

When: The parent information meeting is scheduled for the end of April 2011. The application period will open for student May 1 and close approximately May 25th. More information to follow
